

Home

Inbox

Compose

Contacts

Options Help

shelliebev@hotmail.com

Save Address(es) | Block

0

Previous Next | Close

From : JayPaulDeratany@aol.com

To : shelliebev@hotmail.com

Subject : Re:

Date : Fri, 26 Apr 2002 23:00:00 EDT

Reply | Reply All | Forward | Delete | Put in Folder...

Printer Friendly Version

... shellie hopefully this e mail will get to you. I want you to know that ... an uphill

(redacted for privacy and relevancy issues)

Our case ... are right that I do not think there are a whole lot of issues to appeal. The judge did let a lot of our arguments go to the jury, but then again, she did let a bull shit closing go forward. I agree that Tarpey did play bull shit a the closing and I think that it ultimately cost the case. ... Dr. Coleman. We every case. The doctor says it is in his record and we think ... but as you recall I argued "he who doth protest too much". I was not happy with the jury and truthfully I think that the blonde chick was completely against us from the beginning, and she was very persuasive. I also think the older lady was dead set against you. I think jealousy of a good looking woman played a part. The jury is not as wealthy, nor as educated nor as attractive as you Shelly, and probably you did not make a sympathetic witness to them because they could not identify with someone who gets plastic surgery.

(redacted for privacy and relevancy issues)

(redacted for privacy and relevancy issues)

Honestly, Greg and I really care about you; you became my friend, and if you wind up back here, I hope we can be part of your life; So I am giving advice that is probably way beyond being a lawyer and you can tell me to "shove my platitudes and philosophy" but I truly feel that the best way for you to heal is to realize that by filing the case you made a difference.